Are you an experienced professional in strategic procurement who enjoys taking on responsibility? Do you negotiate with confidence, think entrepreneurially and drive optimisation with passion? Then we look forward to getting to know you!

Your responsibilities:

- Responsibility for the strategic procurement of defined product groups
- Development and implementation of sustainable procurement and supplier strategies
- Independently leading price, contract and terms negotiations at national and international level
- Selecting, developing and evaluating suppliers in terms of quality, costs and delivery performance
- Analysing procurement markets and identifying potential for savings and optimisation
- Working closely with the Production, Quality Management and Logistics departments
- Managing and implementing procurement projects, as well as actively participating in cross-departmental improvement initiatives
- Providing support and specialist guidance to buyers within the team

Your profile:

- Technical or commercial training (apprenticeship, HTL, degree in Business Administration, Industrial Engineering, Supply Chain Management or a comparable qualification)
- Several years' professional experience in strategic procurement, ideally within a manufacturing company
- A proven track record of success in leading complex contract and price negotiations
- A high level of negotiating skill, assertiveness and strong communication skills
- A structured, independent and solution-oriented approach to work
- Proficiency in using MS Office and ERP systems
- Willingness to travel (20%)
- Very good written and spoken German and English

What you can expect:

- Varied projects within a motivated team
- Modern equipment and well-equipped offices and production halls
- Numerous additional benefits: fruit, company doctor, gym subsidy, ...
- Opportunities for professional development within a successful industrial company with a family-like corporate culture
- Canteen serving regional specialities
- Option to work from home (1 day per week)
