Are you an experienced professional in strategic procurement who enjoys taking on responsibility? Do you negotiate with confidence, think entrepreneurially and drive optimisation with passion? If so, we look forward to getting to know you!

Your responsibilities:

- Responsibility for the strategic procurement of defined product groups
- Development and implementation of sustainable procurement and supplier strategies
- Independent management of price, contract and terms negotiations at national and international level
- Selection, development and evaluation of suppliers in terms of quality, costs and delivery performance
- Analysis of procurement markets and identification of potential for savings and optimisation
- Close collaboration with the Production, Quality Management and Logistics
- Management and implementation of procurement projects, as well as active participation in cross-functional improvement initiatives
- Support and professional guidance for buyers within the team

Your profile:

- Technical or commercial training (apprenticeship, HTL, degree in Business Administration, Industrial Engineering, Supply Chain Management or a comparable qualification)
- Several years' professional experience in strategic procurement, ideally within a manufacturing company
- A proven track record of success in leading complex contract and price negotiations
- A high level of negotiating skill, assertiveness and strong communication skills
- A structured, independent and solution-oriented approach to work
- Proficiency in MS Office and ERP systems
- Willingness to travel (20%)
- Very good written and spoken German and English

What you can expect:

- Varied projects within a motivated team
- Modern equipment and well-equipped offices and production halls
- Numerous additional benefits: Fruit, company doctor, gym subsidy, ...
- Opportunities for professional development within a successful industrial company with a close-knit corporate culture
- Canteen serving regional specialties
- Option to work from home (1 day per week)
